

| Rank | Regalia | Title | Entrusted Duties or Histories |
|----------------------|-------------------------|-----------------------|---|
| Emperor/Empress | Crown | Your Imperial Majesty | Rulers of an Empire |
| King/Queen | Crown | Your Royal Majesty | Rulers of a Kingdom |
| Archduke/Archduchess | Crown | Your Royal Grace | Rulers of a Archduchy |
| Duke/Duchess | Crown  | Your Grace | Rulers of a Duchy |
| Count/Countess Royal | Coronet | Your Grace | Former King or Queen |
| Count/Countess | Coronet  | Your Excellency | Head of a County |
| Marquess/Marchioness | Coronet | Your Excellency | Head of a March |
| Viscount/Viscountess | Coronet | Your Excellency | Former Archduke or Archduchess |
| Baron/Baroness | Coronet | Your Excellency | Head of a Barony or an Appointed Baron of Court |
| Viceroy/Vicereine | circlet  | Your Excellency | A gov'n't minister who rules a region (shire) |
| 3rd Level Knight | Gold Spurs, Blue Belt | Sir or Dame * | |
| 2nd Level Knight | Silver Spurs, Blue Belt | Sir or Dame * | |
| 1st Level Knight | Silver Spurs, Blue Belt | Sir or Dame * | |
| Squire | Red Belt | Squire | |
| Man at Arms | Green Belt | Master | |
| Lady in Waiting | Personal Favour | Mistress | |
| Page | Yellow Belt | Page | |

* Please note that Sir and Dame is the proper formal title for a member in any knighthood ranks, but that they may use one of the many equivalent titles in a language that better suits their persona.

ie) Rani, Dama, Chevaliere are all substitutes for Dame and Cavaleiro, Senyor and Riddari are all substitutes for Sir

 A crown and coronet are the same thing, and only differ in complexity of design which would reflect period financial status

 A circlet has no points. It is a plain band of metal